INTRODUCTION

Project for Humanity is dedicated to promoting compassion and generosity through its Ramadan initiatives, including food basket distribution, iftar and Sehri programs, and Eid gift distribution. In this report, we will explore the initiatives and programs implemented during Ramadan, highlighting the efforts of individuals and organizations in making a positive impact on the lives of others.

Our Approach

P4H collaborates with local communities and partners to identify areas of need and develop targeted initiatives that can make a meaningful impact. These initiatives are designed to provide critical support and resources to disadvantaged individuals, families, and communities, helping them celebrate the Holy Month with dignity and joy.

Our Vision

Project for Humanity envisions a society where every person has access to the basic necessities of life, and where love and kindness prevail over hatred and division. Our Ramadan initiatives aim to strive to make a positive impact on the lives of underprivileged individuals, spread joy and happiness to those who need it most, reminding us all of the importance of giving back to the community

What we did

In Ramadan 2023, including the distribution of Ramadan food baskets, Iftar programs, Sehri distributions, and Eid gift distributions among orphans, madrasa students, slum children, poor people, poor students, and destitute women in various districts of Bangladesh.

Why we did

P4H believes that it is important to ensure that the blessings of Ramadan are shared with the less fortunate, and these initiatives are aimed at doing just that. We believe that our initiatives make positive impact on the lives of individuals and communities, while also promoting the values of community, solidarity, and kindness.

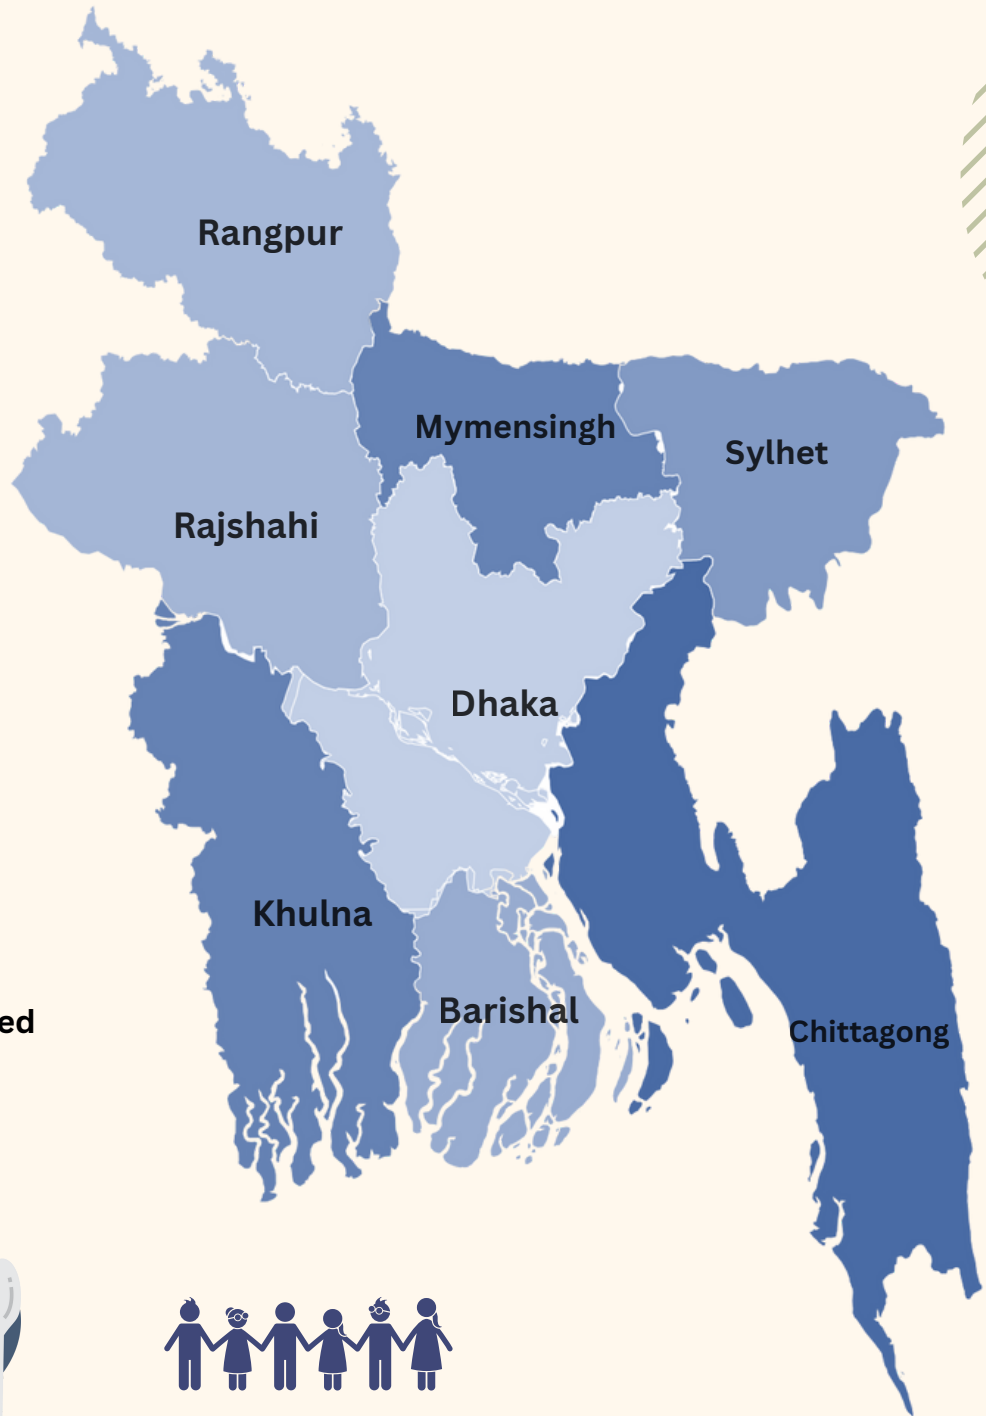

When we did this

We took our initiatives during Ramadan in 2023 (March to April).

Where we did this

We have conducted activities in more than 20 districts across Bangladesh during Ramadan 2023. Especially in Cox's Bazar Rohingya camp, Khulna, Chapainawabganj-Shibganj, slum children, orphan children, etc.

Testimonials

Thanks to Project for Humanity, my family and I were able to enjoy a nutritious meal every day during Ramadan. The food basket distribution provided us with essential items that we could not afford to buy ourselves. We are grateful for their kindness and generosity.

Ramadan Basket Recipients

I attended the Iftar program organized by Project for Humanity and was amazed by the warm and welcoming atmosphere. The volunteers treated us like family, and the food was good. It was a beautiful reminder of the true meaning of Ramadan.

Participants in Iftar Program

The Eid gift by Project for Humanity brought smiles to the faces of many children, including my own. The gifts were thoughtful and well-chosen, and it was a wonderful way to celebrate the end of Ramadan. Thank you, Project for Humanity, for making Eid extra special for our family.

Eid Gift Recipients

The Sehri package by Project for Humanity was a real blessing. As a single mother, it is often difficult to balance work and family responsibilities during Ramadan. The Sehri pack provided by Project for Humanity gave us the energy we needed to start our day and made our mornings a little bit easier. Thank you for your generosity and support.
